THE TENNESSEE SENATORSHIP.

Latest Phase of the Contest—A Fierce Struggle in Nashville—Andrew Johnson Counts Noses and Goes Home Satisfied that he is to be the Man.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 17.—Johnson, Stokes, Brownlow, Senter, and Etheridge are an array that belongs exclusively to Tennessee. No other State has ever produced their equals, and it is not likely that any other State ever will. No other State can boast of such a galaxy of talent, all on the boards at the same time and all in the zenith of their fame and usefulness. By the side of Tennessee even Virginia sinks into insignificance in this particular, and can no longer claim to be the nursery of statesmen. The aspiration of all these distinguished characters to the United States Senate lends a charm to the contest which excites deep interest throughout the length and breadth of the land. Heading the list, of course, is Johnson, whose friends are working for him day and night with all the ardor of men who think that the country ought to be saved, and that A. J is the man to save it. Even in Nashville, Johnson has a host of enthusiastic friends and admirers, though not so many in proportion to the population as in other sections of the country.—His terrible doings in this aristocratic city while Military Governor counts against him to an extent which must bring with it a slight feeling of remorse, and make him wish that he had been a little less loyal and a little more circumspect. The nearest thing to a party now in the city is the Johnson party, and the next nearest thing in the way of a party is the Anti Johnson party. Lines are being drawn without regard to old Whig, Democrat, Radical, and Rebel ties; but the issue is simply one of Johnson. The men who want him to go into the Senate and make Rome howl, as they call it, argue that A. J. is the man who stood up for the prostrate South in the dark and trying hour after her decline and fall. "Without Johnson," they say, "we should have been hung, confiscated, and quartered. He stood up and defied the whole pack of yelping Radical hounds, and, to repay him, we should send him to the Senate, or anywhere else he wants to go during the remainder of his natural life. The other side of the question, the anti-Johnson men, play upon his record, and harp upon his St. Cloud speech to a mob of drunken negroes, in 1865, and his action in the Surratt matter. Besides, those who were assessed for the support of refugees by Johnson, in '62 and '63, of course, have that against him, and their cry is, "Oh, give me back my money." If A. J. had the money to pay back there would be an increase in the size and strength of the Johnson party in the city. A week or two ago Johnson came here with the avowed intention of going to Red Sulphur Springs, in Macon county, for his health. But for some reason he did not go, and night before last he took the train for Greenville. Some say that he has counted noses, and is satisfied he is the coming man without being to any further trouble about it; while others contend that he has given up the struggle and retired to his rural home to spend the remainder of his days in praying for the salvation of his country and mending his old clothes. Those who comfort themselves with the latter opinion, however, are few in number, and principally belong that class who contributed so liberally towards supporting the refugees and freedmen about Nashville, during Johnson's military governorship, in which liberal contributions aforesaid the pointed argument of Johnson's bayonets had something to do. But the chances are five to one in Johnson's favor, notwithstanding the forced contributions, the St. Cloud speech, and the hanging of Mrs. Surratt.—He will be elected, and that, too, by a handsome majority.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S POPULARITY.—The gradual decline of President Grant in American opinion is noteworthy, for there is little evidence of any strong political reason. He is very lenient to Conservatives, but that may be wise; and he has failed to oust the politicians by trade, but that may not be his fault; and he writes rather indiscreet letters, but the letters are sound enough in principle. Nevertheless, it is certain that, for some reason not quite perceptible over here, a tone of contempt toward the President is becoming apparent in both parties. The idea seems to be that he is a bored man, who does not care about politics at all, but wants to be amused, and is not amused by incessant receptions of office seekers, and people intent on giving advice, and financiers who worry him with questions he knows nothing about. That state of mind is quite intelligible—it was Napoleon's, for instance, always—but there seems to be something else. Is it possible—the idea looks absurdly inconsistent with his career, but still it is expressed in quarters not given to railing—that Gen. Grant is, when not called on for real work, just a little frivolous?—London Spectator.

THE RADICAL PARTY.—Some one has drawn up a very correct bill of indictment against the Radical party. It is one that can be sustained by facts and figures. In this bill of indictment the Radical leaders stand charged with—calling themselves Unionists, they have consummated and maintained disunion. Affecting economy, they have given us the costliest government on earth. Prating of virtue, they made it the most corrupt. Clamoring for equal rights, they have proscribed more people than any monarchy in Christendom. Invoking freedom, they established and maintained the darkest despotism in eleven States. Professing toleration, they proclaim acceptance of their creed the alternative of ostracism and disfranchisement. Howling about purifying the Government, they have made dishonesty and office-holding identical. Preaching principle, they subsist by passion and prejudice. Deploring caste, they elevate blacks above the whites in two-thirds of the country. Magnifying loyalty, they trample out every worthy principle of our system. Claiming statesmanship, their officials are either conspirators or thieves. Lauding independence, they are the servile slaves of a party caucus. Pretending to invite criticism, they stifle freedom of debate in Congress, by partizan rule, and drown it elsewhere in blood. Insisting upon peace, they proclaim the old strife to stir up a new one.—Sav. News

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Salem Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Female Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1869.

Loyal Leagues and the Ku Klux—Seditious Teachings, &c.

We have condemned, in unsparing terms, these secret organizations. We have told the people, time after time, that no good can spring from them, and that their purposes and the effects produced by them, were unlawful and criminal. The Leagues gave rise to the Ku Klux; the latter were unheard of until the former came among us. This is natural, perfectly so; one secret society, aggressive in its character, especially when it is of such aggressive character as the "Loyal League" is known to be, begets another of the same spirit and in opposition to it, and the result is, conflict, bloodshed and murder. This has been so in all time, it is so now, and the truth of it is fully illustrated in the Loyal Leagues and the Ku Klux. The result of these organizations is to array one part of society against another; and each claims that the other is the worst.

For a long time past we have heard weekly, and sometimes almost daily, of loyal League outrages, and then of Ku Klux outrages. We have denounced these organizations as evil and only evil. But we never advised the two clans to war on each other, and to kill and murder at will; on the contrary, we have advised them to disband and disperse. This is the duty of every journalist seeking to establish and uphold the safety of society.

But what do we see? The Standard newspaper, in its issue of the 23d instant, comes out in an article, characterized by feelings of intense bitterness against the Ku Klux, in which it says not one word of the "loyal League," and its crimes, but ad vises them to war and murder and death upon the Ku Klux. The article is full of sedition and teachings that have influenced the minds of the members of the Leagues, which, in turn have stirred up and influenced the worst passions among the Ku Klux. It is well enough to denounce the Ku Klux, but it is quite as important to denounce the "Loyal Leagues" which constitute the pabulum of the Ku Klux—it is well enough to tell these organizations that they must cease these crimes, and if they do not they will be put down by the strong arm of the law, but it is a monstrous crime to tell these clans to go to killing each other. That is what the Standard actually does; if it does not do so in terms. Hear it; it says:

"We now tell those who are assailed to fight, to resist force with force, and murder with death. A man's house is his castle, and he who attempts to enter it to do injury can be shot down.

We counsel forbearance no longer. We tell the loyal men of the State to protect themselves and to demand life for life.—Let them keep watchers, who can notify them of the coming of the masked villains, and let there be signals for gathering, that the murderers may be caught in their own toils.

Let the Ku Klux be found out and identified that the law may be able to convict him and the gallows receive its own.

The time for temporising has gone by when MURDER stalks almost unrebuked through the land, and the assassin's knife is a political weapon.

We tell the guilty men, that, as sure as there is a God in Heaven, they will be ferretted out, and, once convicted of murder, no power shall save them from the hangman's rope. They have refused to be governed by the laws of God or man, and have wet the soil of North Carolina with the blood of men murdered because they dared to vote according to their dictates of right. They have kept the land in terror and the people impoverished. Peace ul measures have failed. They have added murder to murder, and outrage to outrage.

Other means will now be tried—a bitter, never-ceasing effort to crush them. They will be watched until there is sufficient evidence to ensure their conviction, when they will be arrested and tried, and, if convicted, HUNG.

They will be followed by the officers of justice, and will not know the hand that strikes them until it is too late to ward off the blow.

To loyal men we say, protect yourselves to the best of your abilities, but do not commit similar outrages in retaliation. Protect yourselves and punish the assassins when you meet them, but do not retaliate upon men who may be innocent.

But, between Ku Klux assassins and loyal men, let there be no terms."

Now, is not this nice language for a newspaper, and that paper, too, the official organ of the State? Is it not manifest that this paper seeks to become the champion of the "loyal League" war upon the Ku Klux? That is the cry of the Standard; but it says nothing of the crimes of the Leagues. "Loil" men are advised to become spies and kill the Ku Klux; but what are the Ku Klux to do when the "loil" men assail them? The Standard don't tell them what to do. We tell them not to kill, but to appeal to the law; they can only be justified in killing in self defense.

The Standard ought to have sense enough to know that such articles are dangerous, and especially so, when addressed to such organizations as the "Loyal Leagues." The writer ought to have prudence and foresight to see the inevitable consequences of such teachings. If the "Loyal Leagues" begin the work of death, as they are advised to do, the Standard and "loil" league men, too, will find to their sorrow, as well as that of every good citizen, that there are two sides to this matter of espionage and death.

This article, in the Standard, is in keeping with the teachings of that paper, and those who have kept up funds for sinister purposes, between that class of the community called "loil" men, and that other class called by the Standard and its friends, "rebels." It ought to be condemned in the severest terms, by all good men of all parties. Such articles are a reproach to any public journal, and especially is it so to the "official organ" of even this State Government.

We counsel peace, forbearance, and constant appeal to the laws of the country, and we call upon all men to sustain the legal authority, even in the hands of such men as now pretend to wield it.

MORE NEWS FROM JO.

In our late visit to Rockingham we heard all, or, at least, a good deal, about Jo. We must have heard much that was not true, and there were some things that we know to be true that we will not state now.—We spared Jo the mortification of their publication, on a former occasion, although he may, next week, with Pike, Cobe, Mennisger, Farriss, Boshier, Jenkins and Company, come to the Depot, to whip us. Well, we will spare Jo the pain and mortification of a publication again, at the risk of being whipped next week.

Perhaps it would not be out of the proper order of things to tell, first, what we did not hear of "our Beloved's" beloved son, the Speaker of the House. We did not hear that "my son, Jo," was making much proficiency in the study of the law, but we did hear that which induced us to believe that the trump of war has fallen from his hands. He no longer pants to meet the "mercantile mauler" in Tucker's back yard, or to print exclamation points in the countenance, or full stops with his knuckles over the eyes of Attorney General Coleman. Softer visions and gentler vibrations have stolen over the dreams of Jo, the Speaker. But Jo is not entangled in the mystic labyrinths of law—like uncle Toby, he has fallen in love. Uncle Toby said that "falling in love carries with it an idiomatical kind of implication that love is below a man." However that may be, uncle Toby fell in love with the widow Wadman, and, in like manner, Jo has fallen in love.

It would certainly be an invasion of the "social circle" to comment upon Jo's love affairs, therefore, we forbear, but we can assure Jo that, if he reads the Virginia and North Carolina papers for the last week, he will find they have not been quite so forbearing. We c'aim great credit for our singularity in this respect.

But, to return to the subject. We did hear that Jo went to Reidsville for Judge Settle's mail, and that the horse and buggy both got drunk; that Jo "busted" the tire of the buggy wheel, and lost a new churn; and that he fired five shots at a stump by the road-side that he mistook for a Ku Klux; that he afterwards called a bull yearling, that chanced to be passing, to "order," and said, "so much passing about the Hall must be discontinued."

But our readers will be able to understand it all as well as if we were to write a full chapter on each particular incident.—Suffice it to say, Jo went to Reidsville on Wednesday, for the Judge's mail; the distance was only about ten miles, and the Judge expected him to return in a few hours. But Jo "took up" in Greensboro', instead of Reidsville. Jo did not return "in a few hours," nor in a day, nor two days. The Judge fearing the horse and buggy might be drunk, sent a special messenger, (or detective) for them, on the third day. But Jo, it seems, had got lost, and after going to Greensboro', he wandered off to Richmond. After several days he returned to Reidsville and started thence to the Judge's, with a new churn and the mail in the buggy. He set out in the morning and, after traveling all day, returned to Reidsville late at night, the point from which he started in the morning, declaring the horse and buggy were both drunk.

Of all the acts of Joseph William, from the time he left Greensboro', to that of his return to Reidsville, including his exploits in the city of Richmond, behold they are written in the Richmond correspondence of the Petersburg Express.

We advise the Judge to be more careful, hereafter, as to whom he sends for his mails, and the people of North Carolina, as to whom she makes Speaker of her House of Commons, in the General Assembly.

Joseph's trip after the Judge's mail lasted about fourteen days. We understand he inquired, while on the train from Richmond, what the papers had said about him and his trip, and seemed evidently disappointed that the SENTINEL had not given him a notice. "'Tis pleasant to see one's name in print," and Jo will likely enjoy this pleasure for some time; but not from us for we intend to punish him, in this way, that is, by not printing his name, for some time to come.

The Judge may send his "student" for the mail as much as he pleases; we shall not notice him. We hope the Judge may recover his new churn by the time his new bridge is completed and his law student graduates, so that many coincidences may conspire, at once, to increase his happiness, and that "his joy may be full."

Unfortunate Joe! He broke his "tickler," lost the churn, "busted" his buggy wheel tire, and got lost himself. No wonder our laws are so crooked, uncertain and hard to understand, when we consider that Joe has to sign them all.

In Quebec, Canada, Messrs. Woodley have discharged from their boot manufactory all the men belonging to the St. Crispin Society. A pastoral letter was read in the Roman Catholic churches condemning the St. Crispin Association, and refusing absolution to those of its members who belong to the Catholic Church. The St. Crispin Society are on a strike in Montreal and Toronto.

MR. EDITOR:—A grand Tournament and Coronation ball took place here yesterday, the 20th. The people commenced gathering about 10 o'clock, and at half past 1 the Knights, headed by the Marshall, Major James E. Robeson, formed in regular military order, and marched to the riding ground, about a half a mile from this place. They came up abreast before the large crowd of spectators, and the charge was delivered by Capt. Daniel Matt, who was very unexpectedly called on. Though he made a short speech it was to the point. The Knights then adjourned to the lower end of the track and were called as follows:

Knight of Bright Hope, W. F. Collins.
" " Lone Star, D. D. Isbell.
" " Divided Heart, B. H. Gregory.
" " Nebraska, N. H. Gregory.
" " Columbia, R. T. Pace.
" " Moonlight Night, C. T. Piunkett.

Knight of the Park, M. W. Carson.
" " Lauenburg, —— Cheatham.
" " Appomattox, Taylor Jugg.
" " Virginia, Ned Mabery.
" " Stonewall, S. W. McDearmon.
" " Locust Grove, Robt. Browning.
" " Red House, Zack Jennings.

After the riding was over, the Judges announced Mr. Robert Browning, "Locust Grove," as being the successful Knight; he crowned Miss Bettie Hix, as Queen of Love and Beauty. The contest for the three Maids of Honor was between Knight of Bright Hope, W. F. Collins; Knight of Columbia, R. T. Pace; Knight of Moonlight Night, C. T. Piunkett; Knight of Stonewall, S. W. McDearmon; Knight of Lunenburg, — Cheatham.

After several rides the honors were awarded as follows:

Knight of Moonlight Night, first Maid of Honor; Knight of Lunenburg, second Maid of Honor, and Knight of Bright Hope, third Maid of Honor.

There was quite a large crowd at the coronation. The crowd enjoyed themselves finely. After dancing till right late, there was a splendid hand round supper brought in, consisting of cakes, candies, nuts, and raisins in abundance. The ball closed about 1 o'clock, A. M. I never saw people enjoy themselves better.

The successful Knight, Mr. Browning, was challenged by Knight of Bright Hope, and three or four others, but declined to accept. Respectfully and truly,

W. F. C.

INCIDENT AT AN INTERVIEW.

The New York Sun's interviewer has been interviewing one Dowling, a "City Judge" of New York. The judge was asked if he had not said on a recent occasion that he didn't care a d—d for the Sun. He denied the allegation with peculiar emphasis, whereupon the reporter who had made the charge was called in from an adjoining room. The following scene occurred:

Interviewer—"The City Judge denies that he ever said anything against the Sun."

Reporter—He did say it, and I can relate the conversation word for word as it occurred.

The City Judge (interrupting)—You are a liar. When did I say so?

Reporter—About two months ago, when we were speaking about the press. You said that you didn't care a damn for the Sun—that I might pitch in as much as I d—d please—that it couldn't hurt you at all—that you didn't care for the whole press of the city—mentioning the Times, World and Tribune.

The City Judge—You are a d—d liar!

Reporter—You are a liar!

The City Judge—Where was this conversation?

Reporter—In your office.

The City Judge (turning about)—I never used such language in my life. The whole thing is a lie—a wilful lie. I am a gentleman by birth and education, and cannot stoop to bandy words with such an ignorant fellow.

Reporter—If you were not so small and diminutive I would chastise you.

More bitter words followed, and the lie was repeatedly bandied between the General Sessions Reporter and the City Judge. Suddenly Justice Dowling, who had returned from his Court, drew a long breath and said:

"Well, it is perfectly evident that no settlement of this thing can be effected here to-day.

The party arose and dispersed.

HON. O. H. BROWNING ABANDONS THE RADICALS.—It is a circumstance calculated to set the Radicals thinking, when such men as the Hon. O. H. Browning, the Secretary of the Interior in the Lincoln administration, are compelled to cut aloof from them. Judge Browning accepts the Democratic nomination in Illinois for delegate to the Constitutional Convention of that State. He might have had any position he preferred, at the hands of the Illinois Radicals, but he rejects them and says he would prefer to represent the Democrats in the Constitutional Convention. It is stated that he is in full sympathy with the Democratic party, and is satisfied that the true interests of the country demand the defeat of the Radicals. In this opinion he will find thousands of his late Republican friends coinciding; and their number is daily increasing. He says:

"I am opposed—decidedly, heartily and defiantly opposed—to striking the word "white" out of the Constitution" of Illinois, and does not hesitate to say that the 15th amendment to the Constitution of the United States, if ratified, will be inconsistent with the other provisions, and with nearly all of them, to which it is an amendment, and necessarily, therefore, void—as much so as if it were a proposition to set aside and abolish the Constitution of the United States.—Intelligencer and Express.

THE PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO ELECTIONS.

The elections for State officers in Pennsylvania and Ohio will take place on Tuesday October 12. Although special interest attaches to the results, since in each case a Governor is to be chosen, in neither State has the campaign been prosecuted with much outward show of vigor. The grand rallyings of the two political parties, accompanied with stirring music, gorgeously bedecked banners, and speeches of political champions, seem to have been discarded as if by agreement between the parties concerned. This state of affairs we attribute rather to the natural reaction from the strain of the excited Presidential campaign of last year than to the lack of interest on the part of the friends of the candidates before the people.

It appears to be generally conceded that Asa Packer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will be elected over his competitor, John W. Geary. The latter, it is true, has the advantage of holding that office now and of exerting for his own interest such influence as inheres in it; but his administration has been inefficient and he has made himself unpopular with a portion of his party. The Radicals are divided in counsel, and Governor Geary, by essaying to secure the friendship of each faction, has incurred the distrust of all.—The vote will probably be light as compared with that of last year, at which time the State polled a larger vote than ever before. Governor Geary was elected in 1866 by a majority of 17,178, in a total vote of 597,370. In 1867, at an election for Justice of the Supreme Court, the total vote was 534,575, and the majority for the Democratic candidate 927. At the election for Auditor General, last October, the total vote reached the unprecedentedly high figure of 653,155, and the Radical majority was 9 677. Three weeks later, at the Presidential election, there were polled 655,662 votes, out of which Grant received a majority of 28,898. It is obvious from these figures that to overcome the average Radical majority of 15,704 at the last four elections will be a most brilliant triumph for the Democracy, second only to the wresting of New York State from Radical rule in 1867, and again in 1868. Asa Packer possesses ability, familiarity with the affairs of his State integrity and popularity, and bids fair to win the day in the face of the obstacle just mentioned. That he will do this is the earnest hope of every Democrat in the land.

The canvass in Ohio is, in some respects, peculiar. The Democrats, after going somewhat outside of their ranks to select Gen. Rosecrans for their leader, upon his declination, for private reasons, of the honor, called to the front their particular champion, George H. Pendleton. It is believed that he can poll a larger vote in Ohio than any other Democrat, both by reason of his personal popularity and the prominent position he has occupied in national politics since 1864. Unfortunately for him and his supporters, he is prevented by the results of an accident from stumping the State. As a speaker, Mr. Pendleton is effective and persuasive, and less likely to loose a friend than to win over an opponent. He is, moreover, regarded as the originator and special advocate of paying the national debt in greenbacks, and, inasmuch as he has revived this issue quite recently, his election will be claimed as the indorsement by his own State of his pet theory. That the Radicals feel concerned as to the result of the election is evident from the fact that they have flooded the State with speakers, among whom are several of their ablest men. In Governor Hayes, per se, Mr. Pendleton has a weak opponent, the former being a very ordinary sort of a man, and possessed of n ne of the qualities which win popularity. Two years ago he was elected by the meagre majority of 2,983, in a total vote 484,227. Last fall, at the State election, 516,750 votes were polled, of which the Radical candidate for Secretary of State obtained a majority of 17,372, and three weeks later Grant carried the State by 40,617 majority, the total vote of the State being 519,829. Comparing the votes at these several elections, it is ascertained that the average Radical majority was 20,324, which Mr. Pendleton has to overcome to be the next Governor of Ohio. The vote we opine, will be much lighter than either of those of last year, and the Democrats of the Buckeye State express full confidence in the election of Mr. Pendleton. Should their hopes be realized (as we trust they may,) and should Asa Packer carry Pennsylvania, the Democratic party, after the election in New York State, in November will start the new year with the control of the three largest States in the Union.—N. Y. World.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held last night in the Council Chamber, all the members present, the following text-books were adopted:

Here is a feeling and genuine personal: One of the Washington papers advertises that "if U. S. G. will only return to his distracted friends, all will be forgiven and forgotten."

OBITUARY.

Died, at the residence of her father, in Yanceyville, N. C., on the 27th of June, 1869, of Typhoid fever, just entering upon her 23d year, Mrs. ANNIE B., wife of Mr. James M. Smith and daughter of Col. Robt. B. and Nannie Watt.

On the first day of June Annie Baily Smith stood, the centre of a happy throng of friends, the cynosure of all eyes, a lovely and joyous bride. On the 27th of the same month envious death had loosed the silver chord of life and the spirit had returned to the God who gave it. How short a step from the bridal to the tomb! How uncertain and brief the joys of earth; but how sold and enduring are those of Heaven, of whose anged throng she is now a member! Who would have her now to exchange the one for the other? She had given the pure fresh morn of her existence to the meek and lowly Jesus and for more than five years, as a member of the Presbyterian Church, had been a decided but humble, unobtrusive follower of the Cross. What consolation for the sorrowing loved ones left behind! The daughter of almost idolizing love, she has become the Seraph child of Him who is all love. The bride of an hour has become the eternal bride of the Lamb! Tho' torn from loving sister and friends, let them remember, it is only to repose in the bosom of that friend who "sticketh closer than a brother."

The writer knew the subject of this notice from childhood and to know her was to love her. The gentle loving smile of welcome with which she greeted her friends, her amiable and unselfish disposition, her affable manners diffusing sunlight and happiness throughout the circle of her acquaintance, her regard for the feelings of others, her person scarcely less lovely than her character, embalm her in our sorrowing hearts amongst their sweetest memories. Ah!

"Death lay upon her, like an untimely frost
Upon the sweetest flower of all the field."

May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, comfort the hearts now stricken and desolate under this crushing bereavement

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

Death has again folded its wings at our door. Infant son of J. A. M., and Maria M Coble, died July 27th, 1869, aged three weeks and one day. This promising little bud, just beginning to unfold, has been called away.

"Oh, weep not for the joys that fade
Like evening lights away;
For hopes like the stars decayed
Shall shine to perfect day."

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

RALEIGH, N. C.
I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALBERT SMEDES.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular.
J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.:
The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.
"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

WARRENTON N. C.
"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.
I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.
I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the design and result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.
MT. PLEASANT, N. C.
I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.
With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.
In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantesburg Scientific High School, N. C.
WILSON, N. C.
I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.
I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Conrse, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.
I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.
McNally's, the fifth book of the course, is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable school publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

OFFICE NO. 13, FIRST FLOOR.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1867, by MORRIS BERNHARDT, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States, for the Middle District of Alabama.

OPTICIAN,

OF BERLIN, PRUSSIA.

Recently of New York, offers those who are suffering from weak and defective sight, his

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union.

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.
CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from DR. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.
WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.
Very respectfully,
F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.
W. H McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.
R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.
DRURY LACY, D. D.,

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.
Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully yours,

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Court notice: Iredell Jones and Allen Jones, Plaintiffs, vs. Cadwallader Jones, Defendant.

Executors' notice, by D. G. Worth and W. H. Bagley.

Factory Cheese, Family Flour, No. 1 Mackerel of the best quality, found at Douglas Bell's. See his advertisement.

BEAUTIFUL COTTON.—We have been shown, and have now in our sanctum where it can be seen, a sample of cotton picked by a "Gullet steel brush gin;" the kind advertised for sale by G. T. Stronach, of this city. This sample was taken from a lot of three bales brought to market on Saturday last, ginned by Lucien Saunders, Esq., of Johnston county; and was sold for a half cent per pound higher than any other cotton of the same grade in the market on that day. It is the most beautiful cotton we have seen.

We sometimes forbear to report misdemeanors, when the exposure would be likely do personal injury without benefit to public morals, and when persons implicated are not in the habit of getting into scrapes. But we hardly ever indulge in this sort of forbearance the second time with the same parties, for a second indulgence in the same tricks manifests a defiance of public opinion and ought to be exposed.

SOMETHING NEW.—We have eaten a great many sorts of good things in our time, and are very fond of that sort of exercise, but we had a new sensation in that line one day last week. It was a pudding made of "grits," in the same manner that rice puddings are made; but in our humble judgment, is far superior to rice pudding.

A lady house-keeper, having some cold "grits," which she obtained from Mr. L. D. Womble, Grocer, left over from breakfast, concluded to try the pudding experiment with them, and we had the pleasure of testing the success which we pronounce complete.

MORE RAIN.—We had more rain on Saturday, even up to the time we get tired of work, say about 10 or 11 o'clock, P. M., the sky was murky with clouds and appearances portentous of plenty more of it. These rains will saturate the earth and lay the dust, but will not do much good to any growing crop, except turnips. Potatoes will not be much benefited; it is too late. One good effect will result, the getting of the lands in a good condition for seeding wheat and oats. By the way, it is high time winter oats were being put in.

KICKS.—The South-West by-South Local intimates that if he and Farriss had bought that "ox" and yoked him up to either of them, the poor ox would have got badly kicked. We knew one of the parties had taken lessons in kicking once, but don't suppose the ox would have minded the kicking of either of them very much, as the other party is not remarkable for prowess in the hind leg.

COMMUNICATIONS.—We have on hand a number of communications from different parts of the State, for which we will make room as soon as practicable. Don't write on but one side of the paper; and don't make your communications too long.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Dr. Bernhardt respectfully tenders his sincere thanks to the clergy and physicians of Raleigh for their kindness in expressing their confidence in his ability to accommodate and relieve persons whose vision is impaired—and to the community in general, for their liberal patronage. He will leave Raleigh October 2nd with feelings of satisfaction and gratitude, and with a determination to call again, when professional engagements in other cities shall have been attended to.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Gens. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40,000,000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

NEW KIND OF GRAPE.—J. R. Jeffreys, Esq., of Franklin, presented us a bucket of grapes, on Saturday, which he considers a new species of North Carolina native grapes. They were found growing on the side of a ditch on his farm, on a vine resembling in body and branches the common native vine, but with leaves like those of the scuppernong, except that they are larger. The berries are black, sub-acid, and of medium size, and have a thin skin.

Mr. Jeffreys calls them the "Berkley grape," after the old man on the farm who first discovered them; but we are of opinion that they are the "Halifax" grape cultivated first by the late Sidney Weller, proprietor of the Brinkleyville Vineyard, Halifax county, in this State. The description of the vines differs slightly, but the berries, in size, color, and taste, correspond with those of the "Halifax." Perhaps cultivation would show them identical in every respect.

FINE TOBACCO.—We are indebted to Mr. G. T. Stronach, Market Square, for a lot of fine chewing tobacco—a sample from a small lot he has just opened. It is very nice.

CAN'T INSERT.—We have received a marriage notice from Chatham county which we would insert with pleasure, if the writer will give us his name. We never publish things of this sort unaccompanied with a responsible name.

THE GREENBACK SWINDLE.—We have noticed in several newspapers the fact of circulars being sent out from New York to various persons, proposing to send the fac similes of Greenbacks, for prices named.—We saw one of these returns, on Saturday, a $1,000 note, and it is indeed a fac simile of the genuine, being a photograph of a note of that denomination, but without signatures, for which, the gentleman who took it from the office, paid $10.70. It had the artist's name and card on the back, and was carefully packed in a tin box large enough to contain a hundred of the same sort.

PROF. S. M. HEWLETT, THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Editor:—Some time ago it was announced that the Y. M. C. A., had secured the services of Prof. Hewlett to deliver a series of lectures in this City during the week of the "State Fair." This plan of the officers and friends of the Association is highly commendable; it is well known to all of our citizens, that there are a large number of indigent persons in our City, who doubtless would suffer for food, clothing and fuel, were it not for the aid received through this Association, and as the Winter is coming on, and it being important to raise funds necessary to carry out the object of the Association, its officers have employed Prof. H. who is second to no lecturer in the United States. They have also secured "Tucker Hall" for the nights of the 20th, 21st and 23d of October, and it is to be hoped that every man, woman and child will go to hear this world renowned lecturer. The admission fee has been fixed so low, that all may go, hear the best lecture they ever listened to, and contribute something to feed and clothe the poor.

The writer of this had the pleasure, 17 years ago, of travelling one week with Prof. H. and heard him lecture every day. He is a natural orator, original in style, witty and full of fire, enthusiastic and strong, with great imitative power; he commands the attention of an audience which he never fails to please and instruct.

His first lecture in Raleigh will be "Man the Dog." The subject of this lecture has been delivered repeatedly in Cooper Institute, New York, and has never failed to draw a large crowd. R.

Parson Brownlow has for once done something to maintain the respectability of journalism, by withdrawing from it.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer complains that $500 and $1,000 bills are being sent for the purchase of cotton, and it fears it is a Northern trick, resorted to for the purpose of endeavoring to break down the cotton market.

Petroleum has been discovered in the vicinity of Bear River City, Utah. Two wells have been sunk, showing a capacity of 40 to 50 barrels per day.

The Catholics of Ottawa, Ill., are about to erect a new Church that will cost between $75,000 and $100,000.

EXECUTION OF A MURDERER.—Poitras, a Canadian murderer, was executed at Quebec on Wednesday. It is said that the executioner was intoxicated while he was performing the duties of his office, and the rope being too long, Poitras fell to the ground on his knees, and was only hanged successfully on a second trial.

When Miss Kellogg was in England the Prince of Wales sent up his card and was very properly refused audience. It should be said that such a call, if accepted, would have been an insult.

A MOTHER KILLS HER SON.—Mrs. Halpine, wife of a mechanic living in Brooklyn, while in a fit of insanity Wednesday afternoon, killed her son, a boy of eight years, by cutting him over the head with a hatchet. Her daughter Alice, attracted by the boy's cries broke in the door and was also attacked, but managed to secure the hatchet and bring in the police, who took Mrs. Halpine into custody.

MR. PEABODY'S MUNIFICENCE.—Mr. Peabody has just given $400,000 more to the Peabody Institute, Baltimore. He writes:

"I therefore now give to you $300,000 of Tennessee six per cent. bonds and $100,000 of Virginia S ate six per cent. stocks for the purposes hereinafter set forth."

The purposes are, first, the erection of another new building, and, secondly, if there be any money left after this is done, the improvement of the gallery of painting and sculpture in the Peabody Institute.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—A lot of minstrels of a western city started out on a "tour" recently. They went to a town not far away, and advertised to give a performance for "the benefit of the poor; tickets reduced to seventy-five cents." The hall was crammed full.

The next morning, a committee for the poor called upon the treasurer of the concern for the amount said benefit had netted. The treasurer expressed astonishment at the demand.

"I thought," said the chairman of the committee, "you advertised this concert for the benefit of the poor?"

Replied the treasurer: "Didn't we put tickets down to twenty five cents, so that the poor could come?"

The committee vanished.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—It is stated that the President, on reading the accounts strongly committing the Executive to interference in favor of the "extremists" in Texas and Mississippi, said to parties of his official household, that the reports were not substantially true. The facts are, that the President will allow the Secretaries to act their pleasure in their several Departments. This will throw the patronage of the Post Office, Treasury and Attorney General for the "extremists;" the State, Navy, War and Interior Departments if they interfere at all, will favor the Conservative Republicans. This rough statement of the situation is the closest approximation possible. Those best informed, persist in asserting that neutrality in the highest quarters will be observed.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Gold Board adjourned to 10 o'clock Monday. A Committee of three was appointed to wait on Butterfield, Assistant Treasurer, and request him to postpone the sale of four millions of Gold to some future day. No Gold transaction of to-day will be recognized by the Board.

The Radical wing set out their professions of adherence to the Reconstruction laws of Congress and present for office men who are qualified under these laws.

The Conservative wing frequently nominate men for office who are known to be disqualified under the reconstruction laws, but who are also known to be acceptable to the Democrats The success of the A. J. Hamilton faction, as it will be produced by Democratic votes, will be the defeat of Republicanism in Texas, and will put the State in the hands of the very men who during the entire period of the rebellion exerted every nerve to destroy the Union, who have uniformly opposed the reconstruction laws with a persistency worthy of a better cause."

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

THE MANIPULATION OF STATES.

It was one of the charges against the Lincoln administration that it created bogus States. At that day the reality was cloaked up under the senseless bosh of loyalty, great heart of the nation, Father Abraham, and all the rest of the war-twaddle; but the shrewd sense of the Democratic party detected and denounced the real purpose of the move. This was to lug in enough rotten-borough Senators to overslaugh the legitimate constituencies of the Union. Despite the Democratic warning, the cheat throve, and from the day of its inception to the present time it is interesting to trace its progress. West Virginia, Nevada and Nevada being jugged in by the ears, Tennessee and Missouri were handcuffed into lobby, and then came the grand assault on the ten Southern States, the end whereof is not yet. So far, then, we have no less than fifteen bogus States, three being bogus outright and the balance genuine, with their several identities dormant under counterfeit externals. In this way the matter rested at the Presidential election swindle of last year, the manipulated States bearing a jolly chorus to the loil song. The election revealing that Radicalism, while temporarily successful, needed a further instalment of fraud to insure its retention of power, it is not surprising that ever since November last there should have been a constant suggestion of further tampering with States. To take the instances up in geographical order, there is first that squeak by some of the holiest of the saints, who, dreading the inevitable political decadence of New England, hinted the propriety of erecting a new State out of the western counties of Massachusetts.—Next was the proposition to sever this great city of New York into a separate State, to be called Manhattan; then that Pennsylvania be cut up by the Alleghany ridge into Pennsylvania and West Pennsylvania, a la the West Virginia trick; then to sever peninsular Michigan from the mainland, so as to have the new State Ontonagon; then to cut up Tennessee into East Tennessee and Tennessee; then to divide Texas into East Texas, Texas, Middle Texas, and Montezuma; and now to cut off some western Arkansas counties, clap them on to the Indian territory, and so make another State for which no name yet appears. Such being the proposed mutilations of States proper, there next comes under review the underlone of talk about erecting some of the Territories—notably Colorado, Montana, Dakota, and New Mexico—into States. Here are eleven suggestions of change, all with the sole object of fostering partisan power.

From the manipulated votes of West Virginia, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, Tennessee, North Carolina, Florida, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, and Arkansas—brief as has been their space of power—the country has suffered so much that it is time once more to raise the Democratic protest and warning against bogus States. Most of these we have mentioned will certainly revert to conservatism, it is true, at no distant period, but it is not enough to cure evil. We should prevent it, and the best prevention is one that ought now to be agitated in order to receive attention in that Federal convention we are destined to have—a restriction, to wit, in the Federal Constitution against the admission of new States save on a two thirds vote of both Houses, as borne on the roll. Such was the beneficent rule proposed and carried, but, unfortunately, afterwards stricken out, in the convention framing the Federal Constitution in 1787. Such, also, was the second of those amendments to the Constitution proposed by the far-famed Hartford Convention, and such the rule of admission prescribed by the late Confederate Constitution. A rule thus originally inserted in the Constitution, afterwards approved by the two most opposite schools of politics ever known in this country, and now indorsed by our own experience is greatly needed.—*N. For the Sentinel.

At a meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, held on the 31st day of August last, I was elected President. On the next day a drawing was advertised to take place on the 19th day of November, 1869, and my name published as President. This advertisement was made without consultation with me, and before the affairs of the Company had been looked into. Upon examining into them, I discovered that the assets were not sufficient to justify the announcement, and I immediately called a meeting of the Stockholders for the 16th day of September. At the meeting of the Stockholders on that day, I stated the condition of the affairs of the Company, as well as I could ascertain them from the books as I found them. The following resolutions were therefore adopted:

Resolved, That the President appoint a Committee of three to examine the books and papers of the Company, and ascertain, if possible, what disposition has been made of its funds.

The Committee under the resolution reported that they had not sufficient time for a thorough examination, and offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President be directed to employ two competent men to examine thoroughly into the affairs of the Company; to ascertain and report what disposition has been made of its funds; to put its present books into the best possible condition, and to open a new set of books upon such a system as shall secure the affairs of the Company from confusion hereafter.

This was amended so as to allow the President to appoint a third person, to be employed for not more than five days; and thus amended, passed.

The Chairman of the Committee also offered the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Stockholders are due, and are hereby tendered, to R. G. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer of the Company, for the faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties.

This was adopted, and it was then further

Resolved, That the Board of Directors be requested to make an assessment of three per cent. upon the stock of the Company, to be paid as follows: one per cent. within 15 days, and two per cent. on the 15th of October next.

Resolved, further, That the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to the amount of such payments, upon this assessment, and if this assessment be not sufficient to meet the liabilities of the Company, the Board of Directors shall increase the assessment until it be sufficient.

Resolved, That the President is hereby requested to enquire into the matter of money paid to J. G. Hester, the late President, at Wilmington, for tickets and stock sold there, and to require the said J. G. Hester to pay said money to the Treasurer, or to account for it.

After the adjournment of the Stockholders, a meeting of the Board of Directors was called for Saturday the 18th inst. At this meeting, the following Directors, with the President attended: Robert G. Lewis Esq., and Messrs. J. G. Hester, J. C. Hester and Wesley Whitaker. After the proceedings of the Stockholders were read, R. G. Lewis Esq., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That an assessment of three per cent. on the stock sold, be made—that one per cent of the same be paid on the 1st of October, one per cent on the 15th of October, and one per cent on the 30th of October.

Resolved, Further, that the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to amount of such payments, upon this assessment. Mr. J. G Hester moved to amend by striking out all after the words "30th of October," and inserting the following:

Resolved, Further that the provisions of this resolution shall not apply to the stock sold by the late President in Wilmington, upon which 10 per cent was paid." This was accepted by Mr. Lewis, and the resolution, after discussion, passed.

The public can see from this action of the Stockholders, as well as of the Directors, that steps are being taken to raise money sufficient to place the Company upon a sound footing. I assure the public that every proper means in my power, as an individual, and as an officer of the Company, will be resorted to, to put right the affairs of the Company, and save those who have taken tickets from loss. No scheme will be advertised until this is accomplished, and then parties holding tickets can have the option to take money or exchange them for others. I feel a deep personal interest in the getting of the affairs of the Company straight, in addition to the interest I feel as an officer. My name was connected with it as one of the supervisors after the first drawing. While so acting I had no interest in the Company, and my only duty was to see that the drawings were fairly conducted, and I can assure the public that they were.

Very recently, before my election as President, I purchased some stock, but never knew anything of the financial condition of the Company until after my election.

ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."

The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.
